

Heb B Spring Lesson 10 - Grammar:

Translations with Indirect Speech Exercise

1. He told me that he ordered the food already.
2. We asked them if they went to the movie yesterday.
3. You read in the book that they hugged each other.
4. He started to say that he received the letter.
5. She paid him the money and told him that she loved his restaurant.
6. He returned home and told his mother that he sailed to Hawaii last week.
7. The volunteers told us that they were excited when they met us last week.
8. I remember that he sent me a letter a week ago, but I don't remember if he decided to come to visit me.
9. Mother said to me yesterday that I need to clean my room and to tidy it up.
10. I need to tell mother that there is no milk at home, and then go to the supermarket.
11. There were students that said that they needed to volunteer to teach other students.
12. You (s,f) asked me yesterday if I prepared my homework. I said to you that I did.
13. You (p,m) told me that you wanted to travel to Europe. Are you really going to do that?
14. When he arrived home he told us that he went to his friend, and that his friend is going to come here tomorrow.
15. I forgot that you told me this story. Can you tell it to me again?